

Workplace Skills Development

HLT31115 Certificate III in Non-Emergency Patient Transport

Email: consulting@industrytraining.org

The Workplace Skills Development Certificate III in Non-Emergency Patient Transport reflects the role of workers such as non-emergency patient transport officers who provide non-emergency transport and care for patients who have non-acute or chronic illness or disability and require transport. Workers in this role provide appropriate patient assessment, follow procedures for safe removal of a patient for transport for pre-arranged or booked transport service and the time of response is not given high priority in comparison to emergency transport.

This program has been designed with the input of PNG industry and specialist and defined as a community and industry need for those individuals and clients that are not professionally trained in the health sector that support:

- Doctors
- Paramedics
- Nurses
- Health posts
- Remote areas and communities

Content of Course:

- Work in health and community services
- 1st aid and infection prevention and control
- Infection prevention and control
- Interpret and apply medical terminology
- Recognise healthy body systems
- Transport non-emergency patients under operational conditions
- Confirm physical health status

Number of Units in this course:

Course Duration: 12 to 24 months as a traineeship

Course Cost: K17,000

For additional information:

Contact: Workplace Skills Development

Phone: +61) (0) 438 954 481

